Tuesday

Pork Fried Rice | Egg Drop Soup | Mandarin Pineapple Salad

Notes:

1. You can eat this with pork like the recipe is written, or you can add more vegetables and have vegetarian Fried Rice.
2. Cook your rice at least an hour before you plan to start your fried rice. It works better if it is still slightly warm when you fry it. Calrose rice is not the same as white rice. Look for it with the white rice, or in the ethnic section in your grocery store.

Pork Fried Rice

Yield: 5 Servings

- 1 lb. cooked pork, thawed and chopped (from freezer)
- 2 tbsp vegetable oil
- 1 egg
- 1 cup onion, chopped
- 1 pkg. peas and carrots, frozen, thawed
- 1 can corn, drained
- 2 tbsp soy sauce* or tamari, to taste
- pepper, to taste
- salt, to taste
- 3 cups Calrose rice, cooked

Cook rice according to package directions. Heat oil in wok or deep fry pan (I use about a tablespoon).

Scramble one egg in oil. Remove egg and add the other tablespoon of oil to the pan, heating. Add chopped onion, thawed peas & carrots (and corn if you like), and anything else you like in your rice. When the onions are tender, add the rice and soy sauce to taste; stir with a large, flat wooden spoon. Add the cooked egg and cooked pork. Stir well. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Serve when rice is heated through and a bit crispy.

Egg Drop Soup

Yield: 4 Servings

- 3 cups chicken broth
- 1 green onion with top
- 1 tsp salt
- dash of pepper
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten

Bring broth to a boil in a medium saucepan. Add salt and pepper. In a small bowl, beat eggs and add onions to beaten eggs. Pour eggs into boiling broth slowly, stirring constantly with fork. Serve warm when egg has cooked into pieces.

- 2 cups pineapple tidbits, drained

Drain both cans of fruit and mix together well. Serve.

Crockpot Orange Chicken | Sesame Green Beans

Notes: This recipe relies on your taste. Taste the sauce before you pour it on the chicken and if you would like it a little sweeter, add a little more brown sugar. If you like spicy, add more red pepper flakes.

Crockpot Orange Chicken

Yield: 8 Servings

- 1 1/2 Lb boneless skinless chicken breasts, cubed
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp ginger
- 1 tsp cornstarch
- 1 tsp kosher salt
- 6 oz. frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed (no pulp)
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 tsp balsamic vinegar
- 2 tsp chili sauce
- 1 tsp cornstarch
- 1 tsp crushed red pepper flakes
- orange juice, if needed
- 3 cups rice, cooked

In a small bowl, mix together flour, garlic powder, ginger, and cornstarch. Dredge (or shake) the chicken pieces in the flour mixture and shake off the excess. Discard remaining flour mixture. Heat olive oil in a large skillet and thoroughly brown chicken. Place chicken into crockpot. In a small mixing bowl, combine orange juice concentrate, brown sugar, balsamic vinegar, salt, chili sauce, cornstarch and red pepper flakes (adjust amount of sugar and red pepper flakes to taste). Pour sauce mixture evenly over the chicken, and toss gently to coat. Cover and cook on low for 4 hours, or on high for about 2 hours. If sauce is too thick, add about 1/4 to 1/2 cup prepared orange juice and stir. Cover and cook about 30 minutes more. Serve over rice.

Per Serving: 334 Cal (9% from Fat, 36% from Protein, 55% from Carb); 29 g Protein; 3 g Tot Fat; 1 g Sat Fat; 45 g Carb; 1 g Fiber; 21 g Sugar; 375 mg Sodium; 72 mg Cholesterol; Units = 6.8; Exchanges = 1 Starch - 1/2 Fruit - 1/2 Other Carb - 4 Very Lean Meat

Sesame Green Beans

Yield: 4 Servings

- 1 Tbsp oil
- 1 Tbsp sesame oil
- 1 Lb fresh green beans, washed
- 1 Tbsp soy sauce
- 1 oz. sesame seeds, toasted

In a large skillet, heat both oils over medium heat and add green beans. Stir green beans to coat and cook until green beans are slightly brown in color (about 10 minutes). Remove from heat. Gradually add soy sauce and stir until fully coated. Cover and let stand 5 minutes. Place green beans in serving bowl and sprinkle with toasted sesame seeds. Serve warm.

White Chicken Enchiladas | Mexicorn

Notes: We are separating the recipe into 2 smaller pans for planned leftovers. If you have a larger family you may want to cook all the enchiladas in one 9x13 pan and not have any leftover to freeze, or double the recipe and freeze one pan.

White Chicken Enchiladas

Yield: 8 Servings

- 1 1/2 cups cooked chicken, cubed, or shredded (from freezer)
- 1 can cream of chicken soup
- 1 1/2 cups chicken broth
- 8 oz. sour cream
- 1 cup onions, sautéed (from freezer)
- 1 cup bell pepper, chopped & sautéed (from freezer)
- 1 can Rotel, drained
- 1/2 tsp cumin
- Adobo* or garlic salt, to taste
- 6 flour tortillas
- 2 cups Mexican blend cheese

Combine soup, 3/4 can chicken broth, and sour cream. Set aside 1 cup of this mixture. To the remaining mixture, add chicken, Rotel, onion, pepper, and spices to taste. Add 1 cup of the cheese. Place 2-3 T. of mixture onto each tortilla, roll up, and place the tortillas in 2-9x9 pans (Make sure 1 pan is freezer safe, like a foil pan). Add the remaining chicken broth to the reserved soup mixture and pour over enchiladas in each pan. Sprinkle remaining cheese over enchiladas. Cover foil pan tightly with foil or plastic wrap and freeze, making sure to label with ingredients and baking instructions. Cook other pan of enchiladas at 350°F until bubbly, about 30 minutes.

FridayCrockpot Spinach Lasagna | Italian Bread | Salad*Notes:

1. The prep work for this dish is very quick and easy. My kids enjoyed it...even with the spinach! If you would rather have meat lasagna, just omit the spinach and substitute 1 pound browned ground beef in place of the spinach. I've made it both ways and it tastes great either way. Be sure to edit your shopping list if you don't use the spinach.

Crockpot Spinach Lasagna

Yield: 8 Servings

- cooking spray
- 1 (16 oz.) box lasagna noodles
- 1 (32 oz.) jar spaghetti sauce
- 1 cup mozzarella cheese
- 1 (8 oz.) container Ricotta cheese
- 4 cups spinach, fresh
- 1/2 cup water

Spray bottom and sides of a crockpot. Spread a few spoonfuls of sauce on the bottom of crockpot to avoid noodles sticking. Break uncooked lasagna noodles into pieces; place 1/3 of the broken lasagna noodles in a layer on bottom of the pot. Pour about 1/3 of the sauce evenly over the noodles. Next, place 1/2 of the Ricotta and 1/3 of the mozzarella over the sauce. Place 1/2 of the spinach on top of the cheese. Place a few spoonfuls of sauce lightly over the spinach. Repeat the layers starting with the broken noodles, sauce, cheeses, spinach and a little more sauce. Finally, layer the last 1/3 of the broken noodle pieces over the top. Cover noodles completely with remaining sauce. Sprinkle remaining mozzarella cheese over the top. Pour water around the edges; cover and cook on low for 3 hours.
